

A software engineer, a lawyer and Inayah walk into a bar.

There's a scorpion sitting on the counter.

THE ENGINEER

"Is it production-ready?"

THE LAWYER

"Who's liable if it stings someone?"

INAYAH

"What would people pay for one a month?"

THE BARMAN

"Sorry, we don't serve scorpions."

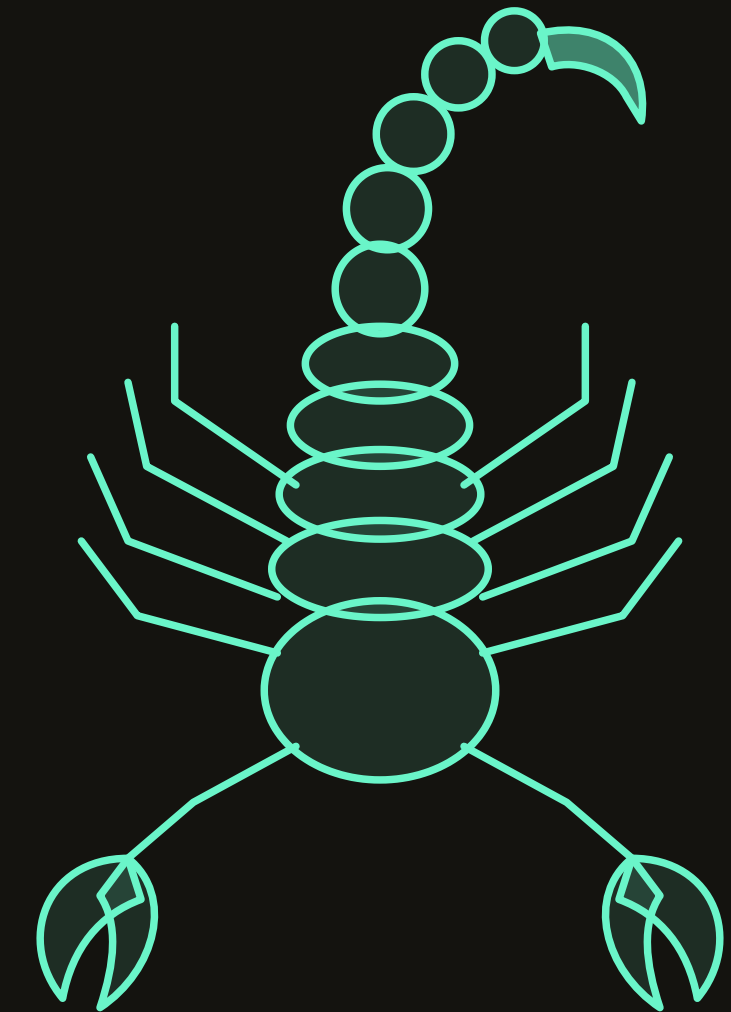

THE SCORPION

"That's fine. I'm the service."

SEED DECK · SEPTEMBER 2026

Scorpions as a Service

435 million years of uptime.
Now on a monthly plan.

George, Harry & Inayah · hello@scorpionsasaservice.com

Most offices have no apex predator.

Pests roam free

Crickets and cockroaches operate with total impunity.

Nothing glows

Desks stay stubbornly non-fluorescent after dark.

Morale lacks edge

Teams have nothing ancient and armoured to look up to.

A fully managed scorpion, deployed to your desk.

STEP 1

Deploy

A vetted scorpion arrives in a secure, climate-controlled enclosure.

STEP 2

Monitor

Live dashboards track mood, moult status and snack uptime.

STEP 3

Glow

Flip on the UV lamp for built-in dark mode.

Battle-tested since the Silurian.

435M

Years in production

5/5

Mass extinctions survived

Breaking changes to the core design

Every feature ships natively.

Built-in dark mode

The exoskeleton glows blue-green under UV.
Zero config.

Ultra-low running costs

Some species go a whole year between meals.

Horizontal scaling

Mothers carry the entire brood on their backs.

Partner integrations

The promenade à deux: hours of claw-locked onboarding.

Three tiers, one of them legal.

EMPEROR

£49 / month

Big claws, bee-level sting.
The friendly desk companion.

GLOW • MOST POPULAR

£99 / month

Emperor plus UV ambience pack and moult alerts.

DEATHSTALKER

Not offered

Skinny claws, serious venom. Legal said no.
